QUARANTINE ADVENTURES

PIONEER TECHNOLOGY CENTER, AN ADVENTURE PARADISE WHERE LEARNING COMES TO LIFE.

Adventurer and Knowledge Seeker Dr. Terri LearnsALot finds a secret entrance; she's investigating to find out for herself if PTC lives up to their mission. First she stumbles into the health wing finding the _____ classroom with strange smells of dissected animals. Students discover medical mysteries here by looking in microscopes. She leaves quickly moving to the _____ room where stuffed animals and mannequins help students understand the correct way to treat patients. As a chair rolls towards her, she runs from the Skills Lab. Creeping quietly down the hallway to _____ she sees a make believe Hospital Room with human arms inside. After a closer look they appear to be practice arms where future nurses learn to take blood. Backing up slowly she runs into the _____ classroom as the door opens she recognizes bags of a red substance. "It's blood?" Nope, it's a liquid to look like blood so students can know where veins are located in a patient's arm.

Through another hallway, she encounters a lab filled with computers for _____ . Someone is trying to hack into Pioneer Tech's network according to the screen. But she realizes that they are really trying to protect the campus from a security breach. The next space contains more computers where people study video graphic design and software for _____ . She leaves quickly hearing footsteps. This colorful room opens up to a playroom for small children, _____ is the program's name. Obviously students are learning to be teachers in this program. She swings once on their playground but someone sees her and she darts to _____ to find a mask. Instead she discovers heads everywhere! But that's how students practice their skills in this human service program. A revving engine drives Terri to _____ where tires, cars, engines and tools train students to fix any kind of vehicle. Moving to _____ a tall dark man is lurking, he's coming after her!! WILL DR. TERRI LEARNSALOT ACCOMPLISH HER MISSION? FIND OUT ON THE NEXT EPISODE.
